NGO SUSTAINABILITY:
PROMOTING SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

NGO SUSTAINABILITY, INC.:

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT/ RENEWABLE ENERGY/ WOMEN'S EMPOWERMENT

THE FUTURE OF OUR PLANET DEPENDS ON OUR ABILITY TO DEVELOP IN A SUSTAINABLE WAY. NGO SUSTAINABILITY PROMOTES SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT AS DEFINED IN THE BRUNDTLAND REPORT, 1987 (ENVIRONMENT, SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT, ECONOMY); AGENDA 21, ADAPTED AT UN CONFERENCE ON DEVELOPMENT AND ENVIRONMENT, RIO, 1992; THE UN MILLENNIUM DEVELOPMENT GOALS (MDGS) 2000, AND THE JOHANNESBURG PLAN OF ACTION 2002. WE REPRESENT THREE ORGANIZATIONS IN CONSULTATIVE STATUS WITH THE UNITED NATIONS ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL.

ACTIVITIES

We host meetings with guest speakers at the United Nations, New York on issues relating to sustainable development: renewable energy, climate change, chemical and water management, environmental governance. These events are announced in the UN Journal. We promote awareness by disseminating relevant articles and other materials. We encourage the initiation of and participation in sustainable development projects globally.

HOSTED PROGRAMS

We have organized numerous programs over the years with leaders in the fields of sustainable development and renewable energy, economists, policy experts, entrepreneurs, senior officials of international organizations, and members of diplomatic missions to the United Nations.

Examples:

'Beyond Today's Capitalism: Moving to True Sustainability'; James Gustave Speth, Author, Dean of the Yale School of Forestry and Environmental Studies, Former Administrator, UNDP.

'The World Bank's Investment Framework for Clean Energy and Development'; Oscar Avalle, Special Representative of the World Bank United Nations

'Potentials of Solar Energy'; Rhone Resch, President, Solar Energy Industries Association

'The Economics of Climate Change – the Stern Report'; Alistair Fernie, Counselor, Sustainable Development/Human Rights, UK Mission to the United Nations

Awareness Raising:

We seek to further the integration of the three components of sustainable development: environment, economic, and social. We also seek to build an understanding of how the different parts of the United Nations promote sustainable development.

Our Consultative Status Organizations

The Association of Former Industry and Development Experts (AFIDE) helps developing countries improve their socio-economic status. Its activities benefit public and private institutions to further sustainable development, technological advancement, and the participation of all states in the global economy. Its specific expertise is agro-based and related industries, including chemical and metallurgical industries; environment/energy and investment promotion.
